

Lawrence Lincoln, Person With Lived Experience, LifeLong Medical Care Board Member

Lawrence Lincoln is formerly a person with no place to be somebody, stranded on the streets of West Oakland, Lawrence partnered with Lifelong Trust Clinic and Alameda County Healthcare for the Homeless to navigate through the perils of life on the streets, emerging as a human being residing under a roof, his life transformed from one devastated by the violence that attends poverty and addiction to one grounded in self-care, education, and community service. Currently, he serves on the Board of Directors at Lifelong Medical Care and is pursuing an MFA in creative writing at San Francisco State University. His work is dedicated to helping his unhoused community find a way home.
