

Peter Robertson, MPA, Senior Director of Practice Transformation, Purchaser Business Group on Health (PBGH) & California Quality

As Senior Director of Practice Transformation, Peter Robertson leads the California Quality Collaborative's (CQC) technical assistance programming. In this role, Peter oversees work with providers, ambulatory delivery organizations and health plans to support the delivery of high quality, patient-centered care. CQC's health disparities, chronic conditions and behavioral health.

In addition to his leadership at CQC, Peter serves on several regional and national bodies, including Cal Healthcare Compare Board of Directors, Quality Rating System & Quality Innovation Strategy Technical Expert Panel, and Integrated Healthcare Association's Technical Measurement Committee

Previously, Peter led the quality measurement activities of the American Academy of Ophthalmology (AAO). This work included the development and maintenance of quality measures stewarded by the AAO and the implementation of a broad range of measures for federal quality reporting within the AAO's IRIS® Registry. Peter's background also includes experience developing clinical practice guidelines at the American Academy of Otolaryngology. Additionally, he worked for the regulatory body of the National Health Service in England and Wales, analyzing and reporting patient experience data.

Peter earned a master's degree in Public Administration from Indiana University and a bachelor's degree in International Management from the University of Manchester.